Ooh La La...La Quinta Madison

The La Quinta Inn & Suites Madison is a brand new, 76 room non-smoking hotel offering luxury lodging and quality service with every stay. We are quietly nestled in Madison's business district, only 3 miles away from NASA and US Space & Rocket Center, about five minutes away from the Huntsville International Airport, only ten minutes away from the Army Redstone Arsenal Gate 9, Research Park and the new Bridge Street Town Center.

We offer a variety of amenities to personalize your stay. So, catch up on your tasks in our state of the art business center which offers: computers, printers, and fax/copy services. Burn off some energy in our well equipped fitness center or simply relax in Madison's only hotel offering an indoor pool and spa. Our Full Hot complimentary Bright Smile Breakfast is a smart way to begin your day with its varied options.

Each luxury hotel room features, a 37 inch flat screen television with premium cable channels, a spacious well lit workspace with wireless & wired high speed internet access, Microwave and Refrigerators along with combination safes. Our hotel also has guest laundry facilities, and are a pet friendly property. Experience the difference.
